

1975 Mountbatten Medal – Gordon Penner

At about 8.15 pm on July 1st, 1975, 16 year old Gordon Penner and a friend were riding near a river when they heard screams and saw a young boy struggling in the water. The river was very cold with fast currents and very steep banks

Mr. Pennor enter into the water and rescued the boy, Kevin King aged 10 years and a non-swimmer.
