

1976 Mountbatten Medal – Patrick McMahon

At about 11.30pm on December 20th 1976, the Fire Brigade was notified that a car had been driven into Limerick Wet Dock. In freezing weather, Mr McMahon, entered the water and carried out a non-contact rescue (using a life buoy) of the sole survivor from the accident.